LIBRARY BOOKOPOLY

HOW TO PLAY

Starting at the “Go and Read” space, keep track of the books that you read from July 6th to August 30th by writing the title of the books in the Bookopoly space. The title should match the book theme on that square, and each book can only be used once.

All participants will be entered into the End of Summer Draw. Readers who read at least one book from each of the six colors on the board will be given one entry into the Grand Prize Draw, while those who complete the board will be given three entries!

End of Summer Draw: September 4th, 2020

Bookopoly Grand Prize Draw: September 5th, 2020

You can submit your Bookopoly board by bringing it to the library circulation desk or by scanning it and sending it via email to biblio@baie-durfe.qc.ca.

SOCIAL MEDIA CHALLENGE

Every Tuesday and Friday, we will be posting Facebook challenge questions about the books you’re reading for Bookopoly. Each question that you answer will count as an entry to our Social Media Draws at the end of each month. Visit our page at <https://www.facebook.com/bibliobaiedurfe/> to join the challenge!
